OUR $1.00 HAT SALE CONTINUED FOR THREE DAYS.

HAT DAY.

SILKS, DERBYS, NOVELTIES.

We go direct to the best manufacturers—assuring clear of the middle men—that means latest fashions and smallest prices for you. To-day we're giving four thoughts—first place to the newest of Spring Hats—space, daylight, and plenty of goods are in your favor, as well as a saving of about a dollar in price on most hats. Our $2 silks, in material and finish, are only equaled by an exclusive hatter's at $3. Derbys at $2, $2.50, $3, $4, $5—stock and trimmings of the best—same goods will cost elsewhere 100 cents more. Small Boys' and little Misses' Tam O'Shanters, Oxfords, Turbans, Cruisers, and Fancy Caps at a saving of low prices.

Our conforming process fits the hat perfectly and comfortably. You'll find us in a position to talk hats today, to-morrow, or when you come.

$3.50 Shoes. Monday we piled up broken lots and lines to close—considerably over 300 pair, comprising $3.50, $4, $5 qualities. Today that price represents but a few dimes. If your size is there you get a remarkably good pair of Shoes for $3.

$10 up to $15—from the plain and serviceable to the most elegantly made Spring Overcoats.

Spring Suits are looking bright, snaky and cutaways—light and medium colors.

We couldn't do more liberally by you than in our present Children's Kilt Suit sale. Just half price for the prettiest patterns and best wool goods. $2 buys at $10, $2 gives a $4 one, and $1.75 for a former $3 one, and so on.

An array of traveling requisites in our basement—large and small Trunks, Bags, and Satchels, Collar and Cuff Boxes, and Tourists' Toilet Cases.

What is the matter with the School Children?

A big book and a small child may be half a dozen big books and a small child, one of the school children.

A small room, poor ventilation, foul air, and too many lungs for the breathing space—too many school rooms.

Study, study, study; recite, recite, recite; after school, study some more; study in the evening for next day—one of the school days.

And father and mother wonder why their children are nervous, cross, languid, and don't feel well—for these reasons, this suggestion:

Give your children Paine's Celery Compound. It will banish their nervousness. It will make them hungry. They will feel well all over. It will give the needed strength for school duties, and restore perfect health.

Many well-known people in this city can testify to the great benefit their children have derived from the use of Paine's Celery Compound.
